*H*ATSAIL Yachting and Tourism Co. is established in 1994 and our main areas of concern is incoming travel from all over the world. We are specialized in yacht tourism with our four world-known deluxe motorsailers SIRIUS, RIGEL, ALTAIR and ALDEBARAN, which will give your clients enormous satisfaction in luxury and comfort.

*D*o you dream of cruising the Mediterranean and Aegean seas in tranquil splendour? Then our fleet of luxurious custom-built Turkish motorsailers, drawn on traditional and authentic lines, is the answer to your reverie.

*F*our magnificent vessels are specially designed to give the selective traveler ultimate comfort in style and safety.

*T*he design of these superb yachts is based on space & stability and is tastefully furnished throughout to the highest standards.

*A*waiting you on board are air-conditioned saloons and cabins carpeted wall-to-wall, modern en-suite bathrooms, a fully equipped galley, water sports gear and all the up-to date technical equipment required for navigation and entertainment.

*W*ith our professional crew at your service, the serious lounge has complete license to self-indulge in spectacular surroundings.

*T*he captain is at the helm and your chef is busily preparing some tasty delicacies, whilst you spread out on cushions in the wide aft deck with a cool drink and watch dolphins skip alongside your bows.

*W*e do not claim we invented the term “exclusive yacht chartering & group travel”, but thousands of our satisfied clients enjoyed more than the sun+sea+sand approach of our carefully designed programs. All members of our professional team speak fluent English and are confident your stay will be a pleasant and unforgettable one.

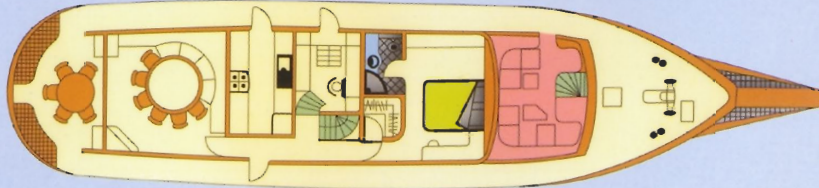

*W*e guarantee reliability, high quality service with a real “win-win” attitude to ensure a continuous and satisfactory relationship. When we handle a group, our aim is to make them our regular customers.

M/S SIRIUS - M/S RIGEL

Built to offer the best of both worlds, SIRIUS and RIGEL, have the light and spacious accommodation normally associated with motor yachts, combined with the peace and tranquility found aboard a sailing yacht. The design of these superb sister yachts is based on space and stability, and they are tastefully furnished throughout to the highest standards. SIRIUS and RIGEL, launched in Summer 1994 in Istanbul, both accommodate ten persons in three fully air-conditioned staterooms and two master suites. Twenty-six meter masts with 368m<sup>2</sup> sail area give our motor-sailers an incredible sailing performance, while the most up-to-date navigation and communications electronics help to ensure safety during your cruise.

SIRIUS and Rigel are dedicated to guest comfort with spacious cabins, open seating areas at the bow, at the aft and on the fly-bridge, a formal dining room and water sport facilities. The two master staterooms are located at the bow of the vessel, one above and one below deck, occupying the full beam. All cabins are furnished with mahogany joinery, have separate air-conditioning system and access to central music transmission, and offer double-beds with deluxe bathrooms en-suite. Only your steward(ess) cabin is located in guest quarters for maximum service, whereas your crew has their own living quarters located at the bow of the vessel.

M/S ALTAIR - M/S ALDEBARAN

Launched in the summer of 1992, ALDEBARAN and ALTAIR have been specifically designed for the sophisticated charter guest who wishes to cruise the Eastern Mediterranean in comfort. Located at the bow of the vessel, the Master Cabin with deluxe ensuite bathroom occupies the full beam. Four similar double-bedded cabins are decorated tastefully using mahogany furniture offering private bathrooms and self-controlled air-conditioning. The Master Suite Aft with bathroom en-suite completes the spacious accommodation quarters for twelve guests. Cabin quarters are totally separated from guests quarters with private facilities.

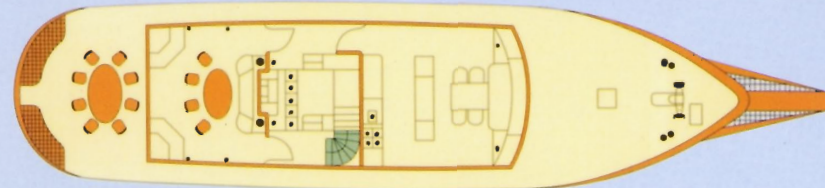

At the bow of the vessel, forward and adjacent to the Galley, lies the Fore Saloon, and behind the Helm lies the Aft Saloon cloaked in classic mahogany joinery. In the Aft Saloon, a group of twelve may dine in style, while enjoying TV, a stereo system with CD and a well-stocked bar. While dining or relaxing, spectacular surroundings are not missed thanks to a carefully thought out design with large windows. The main saloon leads onto the spacious Aft Deck with dining facilities for twelve guests around the mahogany table. A further U-shaped seating area is ideal for sunbathing and cocktails.
